

A PAST PRESIDENTS PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we the Past Presidents associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

- To uphold and defend the prestige of our Unit;
- To maintain honor and dignity;
- To foster and perpetuate interest and concern for the future of our Unit
- To preserve the memories and incidents of our association throughout the past years;
- To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the Unit, District, Department and the National Organization;
- To combat the lack of interest of members in both the classes and the masses;
- To make right all past mistakes;
- To promote peace and goodwill among all members;
- To safeguard and transmit to those who follow us, the principles of dedication, sincerity and hard work;
- To participate in and contribute to whatever task The American Legion Family may ask of us;
- To consecrate and sanctify our association, by our devotion to the principles of the American Legion Auxiliary.

A PAST DISTRICT PRESIDENTS PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we the Past Presidents of District ____ associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

- To uphold and defend the prestige of our District;
- To maintain honor and dignity;
- To foster and perpetuate interest and concern for the future of our District
- To preserve the memories and incidents of our association throughout the past years;
- To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the Unit, District, Department and the National Organization;
- To combat the lack of interest of members in both the classes and the masses;
- To make right all past mistakes;
- To promote peace and goodwill among all members;
- To safeguard and transmit to those who follow us, the principles of dedication, sincerity and hard work;
- To participate in and contribute to whatever task The American Legion Family may ask of us;
- To consecrate and sanctify our association, by our devotion to the principles of the American Legion Auxiliary.